DANISH NATIVE COUNTRY ARTIST JESSICA LYNNE HOME ON TOUR

Tacoma, WA, USA, August 24, 2018 - Nashville Recording Artist and Danish native Jessica Lynne will be returning to her homeland Denmark on a 2 week tour, after creating a hugely successful career living in the US.

In 2010 Danish singer and songwriter Jessica Lynne moved to the US to pursue her dream of becoming a professional country artist. A native of Haslev, DK and living in Copenhagen, DK at the time, she was a long way from achieving that goal. "I must admit it felt crazy back then", admits Jessica Lynne "as I was preparing my move, when I had nothing to show for it but a guitar and some halfway decent songs. But there was really not many options for someone wanting to play, sing and write contemporary country music in Denmark so I felt like it was something I had to do."

Fast forward 8 years later, no one can object that Jessica Lynne is one of the top country names in the American Northwest. Having graced stages like The Triple Door, Watershed at the Gorge Amphitheater and the Oregon Jamboree, opening for such names as Dustin Lynch, Trick Pony, Keith Anderson and shared festivals with Tim McGraw, Little Big Town and Lady Antebellum, Lynne's success is undeniable.

"Becoming a Nashville Recording Artist has always been my dream. Getting to play with the same cats as all the big stars in Nashville really hit home for me that I'm actually doing this" Lynne chuckles remembering her highly acclaimed 2016 Release, "Catch Me If You Can" recorded with Grammy winners Larry Beaird and Tammy Rodgers to name a few. Jessica Lynne will be back in the studio this winter to record her 2nd Nashville album for release in 2019.

This September she is back in Denmark to showcase her music. Bringing along fiddle player, Kat Bula who really lends herself well to Jessica Lynne's well-crafted songs and memorable hooks. The two have toured the US extensively so as Lynne puts it: "It's only natural that I would bring her along, so I can show my homeland exactly what it is I do back in the US."

The corner show of her tour is on September 18th at Spillestedet i Haslev. "It's quite an honor to be hosted to play in my hometown. I know many of my old schoolmates and friends still live in Haslev, many of them have been cheering me along from the sidelines all this time, so I am very excited to play all my new songs for them and reconnect with them again." As a special treat, Raymond Hayden will be joining Lynne and Bula on keys for this show. Show starts at 7 pm, more details can be found on her website.

It's been a whirlwind 8 years for Jessica Lynne but she's not done yet. "I feel like I've only scratched the surface" says Lynne who is starting to see some traction on her name. "I'm making some great contacts and writing better and better songs. I feel like the sky is the limit for me if I just keep going." This year she is planning a Christmas EP release and in 2019 is a much more extensive tour schedule and many more trips to Nashville to support her upcoming Nashville recording.
